

"The Mascot" performances Thursday and last night attracted the attention of society to a considerable extent, the house on both occasions being filled with many of the social leaders in the local smart set. The performers were liberally applauded and should be satisfied that their hard work at rehearsals for the past two months was appreciated and the result enjoyed very much. The costumes worn by all before the footlights were decidedly pretty and the series of tableaux presented were as fine as anything heretofore seen on a local stage. The individual work of Mrs. Crook and Mrs. Herzer was particularly fine, their well trained voices being heard to the very best advantage. The male soloists were all also good, while the chorus went with a snap praiseworthy throughout.

One of the prettiest bits of the opera was the Ma Cherie solo and chorus, and the dancing of the Ma Cherie ballet. In this the dainty costumes of the young ladies were particularly admir-

Special Sale

—OF—

LADIES'

Belts

and

Bags

Many items are marked at half, many more at less than half, and everything is selling at special prices.

See Our Ad On Page Two

N.S. Sachs Dry Goods Co., Ltd.

The Store with the Money-Back Policy

CALLING DAYS IN HONOLULU.

Mondays — Punahou, Manoa Heights, College Hills, Makiki.
Tuesdays — Waikiki, Kapiolani Park, Kaimuki and Palolo.
Wednesdays — Nuuanu and Punahou. Above Nuuanu bridge, first and third Wednesdays; below second and fourth.
Thursdays — The Plains.
Fridays — Town and Hotels.
Saturdays — Kailua.

Vanderbilt and Mrs. Philip Lydig will visit here shortly, as they are contemplating a trip to the Orient. Captain Lydig will probably be in the party. He is very well known here, having visited here several times.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox has discovered that the habitat of the popular mother-in-law is Honolulu. In one of her letters to the San Francisco Examiner she writes:

There must be some peculiar quality in the climate of the Hawaiian Islands; for there I encountered two young women who had been married for a decade of years, and who were absolutely devoted to their mothers-in-law.

Both were American women, married to American men. One assured me that she would go to any remote spot on the earth and feel that it was home if her husband's mother accompanied her.

"She is the sweetest and most wonderful woman in the world," was her remark.

The other told me that the joy and life of the home was her husband's mother.

How refreshing and beautiful is such a statement coming from the lips of a young wife.

The world can never progress to the standard dreamed of by the altruist and reformer until the term mother-in-law ceases to carry a stigma with it.

Never can woman become emancipated and take her right place in the great scheme of the universe until she eliminates from her own nature the petty cruelty, the ignoble selfishness, the mean jealousy which combine to make her a disagreeable mother-in-law.

Never until she learns that large understanding of love (and of the much-vaunted Mother Love) which renders it impossible for her to be inconsiderate of the feelings of her son and his wife, or her daughter and son-in-law, can woman help the world along to higher standards.

Because she is an older woman, and has had more experience in life, the mother-in-law should feel it her imperative duty to bear with the weakness, the selfishness and the folly of the son's wife until she could, by constant exhibitions of the real spirit of the universal mother love, win her daughter-in-law to be her friend and compel her admiration and respect, and through those qualities help the younger woman to overcome her faults.

That is what long life is given to us for—to perfect our characters; to make ourselves teachers, guides, helpers and friends of the young; to be in a moral position to lead them up and out of the valley of selfishness and the byways of folly into the sunlight of usefulness, and to set their feet firmly on the high road of character building.

It should be the ambition and pride of every woman of middle age to so help younger women and men over the difficult road of life.

And surely she would be most patient and tender with the wives of her sons and the husbands of her daughters.

She should attract them first by her admirable qualities; with her loving nature; with her patience; with her toleration and liberality of judgment, and by her ready appreciation of their good traits.

She should make them love her. Then all the rest would be easy, and the name of mother-in-law would cease to suggest the human porcupine, a name which it so frequently merits today.

The beautiful Nuuanu residence of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter was en fête on Wednesday; the occasion being a reception given in honor of Mrs.

Strong and her sister and niece, Mrs. Achilles and Miss Achilles, Mrs. Carter presenting the many guests to the guests of honor. Roses in profusion had been used for the decorations, the effect being beautiful. Assisting Mrs. Carter were Mrs. Walter Brinkerhoff, Mrs. Galt, Mrs. Leopold Blackman, Mrs. Francis Swanzy, Mrs. C. Holloway, Mrs. Augustus Knudsen, Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mrs. Goodale, and the Misses Alice Macfarlane, Beatrice Castle, Alice Cooke and Phoebe Carter. Among the guests were Princess Kawananakoa, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. George Davies, Mrs. C. Hedemann, Mrs. Hedemann, Mrs. M. M. Scott, Miss Brown, Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, Mrs. Weight, Mrs. Ernest Mott-Smith, Miss Patsy, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Rodiek, Mrs. Focke, Misses Walker, Mrs. Rees, Mrs. Dunning, Mrs. Babbitt, Mrs. J. O. Carter, Miss Carter, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Mrs. George Waterhouse, Mrs. Marx, Mrs. Kopke, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Waterhouse, Mrs. James Castle, Mrs. Allan White, Mrs. Hyde, Mrs. Sanford Dole, Miss Adams, Mrs. Eben Low, Mrs. Humphris, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Mrs. Mist, Miss Mist, Mrs. Dillingham, Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. du Roi, Mrs. Lewton-Brain, Mrs. von Holt, Mrs. Laura Wight, Mrs. Mary Gunn, Mrs. Charles Wight, Mrs. McGrew, Miss Hardaway, Mrs. Charles Cooper, Mrs. S. Parker, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mrs. Clinton Ballentyne, Mrs. Arthur Berg, Mrs. Ralph Forster, Mrs. Mackinnon, Mrs. Damon, Mrs. Wadham, Mrs. Selden Kingsbury, the Misses Jordan, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Richard Cooke, Mrs. Atherton, Mrs. Foster, Miss Margaret Castle, Mrs. Cleghorn, Miss Risely, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. Hawes, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Isenberg, who sailed on Friday as passengers of the Hongkong Maru, en route to Germany, were entertained extensively during the week preceding their farewell. Among those who arranged affairs in their honor were Wm. Pfotenbauer, the German Consul; Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Schultze, and Mr. and Mrs. George Rodiek.

Captain and Mrs. Rees are now located at the Pleasanton, where they will make their home.

Mrs. B. Griggs Holt will leave shortly for the Coast, her health being such that her physician has ordered a sea voyage and a change of climate.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Fay have taken the Fred Angus cottage on Matlock avenue for a few months.

Mrs. Mackall's recital on Tuesday night was a delightful affair, being thoroughly enjoyed by the many who attended. Mrs. Mackall is a soloist to whom all lovers of the best in music delight to listen, and she has also a skill in selecting assistants for her recitals that complete them in an artistic sense. On Tuesday Miss Grace Webster, Mrs. W. L. Whitney, Mrs. F. H. Humphris and Miss Margaret Clark contributed musical numbers, and assisted materially in making the success that the recital scored. It was evident by the attendance at the affair that Mrs. Mackall's courtesy toward "The Mascot" promoters in changing the date to accommodate them had been appreciated, and the number in the audience was unaffected by the altered date.

Mrs. B. F. Dillingham was the hostess of a delightful luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Hugo Frear, among the guests being Mrs. Augustus Knudsen, Mrs. Francis M. Swanzy, Mrs. Alonzo Gartley, Mrs. Will Whitney, Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. Wells Peterson, Mrs. Frederick Lowrey, Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Miss Margaret Hopper.

Colonel and Mrs. Sam Parker are booked to sail on the Siberia for the Coast next week, where they will be joined by the Misses Muriel and Beatrice Campbell. The young ladies will spend their vacation with their mother, returning to their school in the East in the fall.

Miss Sargent, a well-known society girl of New York, will spend a part of the summer in Honolulu as the guest of Princess Kawananakoa. She is expected to arrive here this month.

Judge and Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. Walbridge and Dr. Brigham were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Blackman, at their Manoa home, at luncheon last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton J. Hutchins left on the Nevada on Friday for San Francisco, where they will reside in future. They will be missed from Honolulu.

(Additional Society Notes on Page 8.)

WHITNEY & MARSH

SPECIAL SHOWING

—of—

"HOME-MADE"

Muslin Underwear

A new assortment in all styles of garments.

SPRING 1908

You want a hat this spring which will be becoming and appropriate on any informal occasion. You want a hat which will keep its shape and freshness all Summer. You want a style which will be in vogue wherever you go, the mainland or the continent.

In other words you want a

DUNN HAT

HAVE YOU TAKEN OUR ADVICE and made the acquaintance of Filipina?

Everyone who has, has fallen in love with it.

Like Pina, but better. It's striped, while Pina is plain. It washes. It wears.

It's the very thing you need for a party dress this summer.

It's something different, and as such is just the thing to send to your Mainland friends. They can't buy it there.

Filipina is 36 inches wide and sells for 85c yard.

We receive each month THE NEWEST STYLES in

Marquise Waists

This is Number 570, size 36, Price $5.

Made of fine Bastiste, the insertion is valenciennes and the flowers embroidered.

Clearance Sale

—OF—

Wash Goods

Tomorrow Morning, May 4 at 8 o'clock

This will be a great opportunity to get the rest of your Summer's dresses at prices only about half the usual ones. The materials, colors and patterns shown are all new and cannot help but please you. Sale prices range from 10c to 50c per yard for goods that would ordinarily cost you from 20c to $1 per yard.

EHLERS

WHOSE SALES ARE SALES.

The Marquise Waist

is the best for Style, Fit and Workmanship.

This is Number 2535, sizes 34 and 40, Price $4.50.

Made of soft Mull with alternate rows of Val and Imitation Maltese Lace around the yoke. Imitation Maltese insertion and tucks down front.

NEW

Summer Suits

We have just opened an EXPRESS SHIPMENT of

Ladies' White Suits

These are in both linen and cotton and are Tailor-made.

With one or two exceptions, there is but one of a kind.

Some are embroidered, some are finished in Soutache and Fancy Braids, some in Irish Lace.

They are all pretty, they are all up-to-date, they are marked at reasonable prices.

Prices $14 to $40.